1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, from and after 2 the thirtieth day of September, eighteen hundred and thirty-3 five, the districts of Saint Mary's, (Maryland,) Sunbury, Hard-4 wick, Saint Mary's, (Georgia,) and Pearl river, shall be abolish-5 ed, and annexed as follows :

6 Saint Mary's (Maryland) to Annapolis, Snow Hill to Vien-7 na, Sunbury and Hardwick to Savannah, Saint Mary's (Geor-8 gia) to Brunswick, and Pearl river to the district of Mississip-9 pi; and that Port Deposit, in Maryland, shall be a port of 10 delivery, and Havre de Grace shall be discontinued as a port 11 of delivery.

1 SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That, from and after 2 the day aforesaid, the salaries received by all persons engaged 3 in the collection of duties on imports and tonnage, shall be in 4 full, and in lieu of all fees, commissions, salaries, and emolu-5 ments, heretofore allowed, with the exception of what they 6 may be entitled to by law from fines, penalties, and forfeitures, 7 or as superintendents of light-houses ; and all fees now pay-8 able by law shall be regularly accounted for quarterly, and 9 paid into the Treasury by the respective officers receiving 10 the same.

1 SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That, in the districts of 2 New York, Boston and Charlestown, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Baltimore, Charleston, Portland, Salem and Beverly, Norfolk and Portsmouth, Savannah, New Bedford, and Mobile, there shall be allowed to the respective collectors, in addition to their salaries as fixed by this bill, reasonable office rent, (when sufficient accommodation of room is not provided by the Government,) fuel, and stationery; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to devolve on, and to unite in, one person, when deemed safe and convenient, the duties of two or more subordinate officers, and to allow a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars as compensation for the duties imposed by any such additional office.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the compensation of storekeepers shall not exceed three dollars per day for the time they may be actually employed; nor shall the yearly pay of any storekeeper exceed one thousand and fifty dollars; nor shall the compensation of any boatman or laborer exceed one dollar and fifty cents per day for the time they may be actually employed; nor shall the yearly pay of any boatman or laborer exceed four hundred dollars.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That every surveyor appointed in pursuance of this act shall possess the powers of an inspector; and, so far as a proper discharge of the other duties of his office will permit, shall perform the duties of an inspector in person.

1 SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That, at ports where 2 there is a naval officer and no deputy naval officer, the naval 3 officer shall have power to depute a clerk or an inspector to 4 execute official papers for him and in his stead, whenever, 5 from necessary absence, or other cause, he shall be unable to 6 do so in person.

1 SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the office of 2 measurer is hereby abolished, and the duties heretofore per-3 formed by measurers shall be performed by the inspectors 4 and temporary inspectors, and such officers as are herein di-5 rected to perform the duties required of inspectors.

1 SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be law-
 2 ful for the collectors of the respective districts in which no 3 appointment of a deputy collector is provided for in this act, 4 in case of sickness or necessary absence of the collector, to 5 authorize an inspector or surveyor of his district to act tem-6 porarily, and during such sickness or absence, as his deputy ;
 7 and in cases where there are, in any districts, ports of entry 8 or delivery separate from the port at which the collector's of-9 fice is located, and at which an inspector or surveyor may be 10 stationed, to appoint such surveyor or inspector a deputy col-11 lector; but, in neither of the cases provided for in this section, 12 of the appointment of any surveyor or inspector to be a de-13 puty collector also, whether temporarily or permanently, shall 14 such appointment be considered as entitling such officer to 15 any compensation in addition to that allowed to him by this act 16 as surveyor or inspector; and all persons now or hereafter ap-17 pointed inspectors, weighers, gaugers, or clerks, may be re-18 quired to perform the duty belonging to either of those offi-19 cers, whenever convenient, without receiving any additional 20 compensation therefor.

1 SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That surveyors, resid-2 ing at ports where there are no collectors, shall be authorized 3 to clear and enter vessels engaged in the coasting trade and 4 fisheries, arriving at, or departing from said ports, who shall 5 make monthly returns of the same to the collector of the dis-6 trict in which they reside; and said surveyors shall be ap-7 pointed in the same manner as the inspectors of the customs, 8 where the said surveyor is to be appointed a deputy collector.

1 SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That so much of the 2 tenth section of the act of the first of March, eighteen 3 hundred and twenty-three, entitled "An act supplemen-4 tary to, and to amend an act entitled 'An act to regulate 5 the collection of duties on imports and tonnage,'" passed 6 second of March, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, and 7 for other purposes, as requires, in cases where invoices 8 of goods paying an ad valorem duty are not verified by a con-
 9 sular certificate, the collector of the port to certify his opinion 10 to the Secretary of the Treasury that no fraud was intended 11 in the invoice, and authorizes him to direct the entry to be

12 completed, be, and the same is hereby, repealed ; and the col-13 lector and naval officer jointly, at such ports where there is a 14 naval officer, and, where there is none, the collector alone, 15 shall have power, should he or they be of opinion that no 16 fraud was intended in the invoice, to admit the same to an 17 entry accordingly.

1 SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the authority 2 vested in the Secretary of the Treasury, under the act of the 3 third of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, to direct 4 the completion of entries for the benefit of drawback, in 5 all cases where the exporter or exporters shall not have 6 completed the entry, by taking the oath, or giving the 7 bond required by the existing laws of the United States, 8 within the period prescribed by law, is hereby revoked, and 9 the said authority, at such ports where there are both a col-10 lector and naval officer, is vested in, and shall be exercised 11 jointly by, those officers, and solely by the collector at ports 12 where there is no naval officer, who shall have power to al-13 low the entry to be completed, and the certificates or debent-14 ures to be issued, as the case may be, upon a compliance 15 being had with the requisitions prescribed in the act before 16 stated, and he or they being satisfied that the failure to com-17 plete the entry was accidental, or without any intention to 18 evade the law, or defraud the revenue.

1 SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That whenever the

2 public service, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Trea-3 sury, shall require it, he shall be at liberty to increase the 4 number of temporary inspectors in any of the collection dis-5 tricts, provided he shall not increase the whole number pro-6 vided for in this act.

1 SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That if any person 2 employed in any duties connected with the collection of the 3 revenue shall accept or receive any fee, reward, or compensa-4 tion, other than that allowed by law, for aiding or assisting 5 any one in making any entrance or clearance, or in preparing 6 any papers to be used or deposited in any custom-house, such 7 person shall forthwith be removed from office, and shall, 8 moreover, on conviction thereof, pay a fine not exceeding five 9 hundred dollars, one-half of which shall be for the benefit of 10 the person giving information of such offence.

1 SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That all former laws, 2 or parts of laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this act,
3 be, and to that extent they are hereby, repealed.
